1. The Liberal Party and the Populist Party have agreed to establish an Advisory Council consisting of retired generals. This council will advise the Government on questions of a politico-military nature. Generals Merenditis and Melissinos are reported to be the members for the Liberal Party, and Generals Drakos and Kosmas for the Populist Party. It is not yet known whether it is the intention of the parties that these generals should return to active service.
